

Trust Children

“Every Child Needs Our Love”
Empowering through education since 2004

VISION

To break the “poverty-manual labour” cycle of the economically underprivileged through education.

To nurture ethical human beings of grandeur and strength; with intelligence tempered by humility, strength tempered by love.

MISSION

To provide free education to economically underprivileged children through its school “Gurukulam” and support the children until they complete a vocational course through “Gurukulam Vocational Training Centre” or a professional course.

To nurture inner and outer strength in the child through martial arts, yoga and “How to live moral value classes”.

Trust Children (www.trustchildren.org) is a registered public charity in India that provides FREE education to underprivileged children through its school “Gurukulam” in Kovalam Village, Chennai, India. Founded by Capt. Nandkumar in 2004, the Trust is run by a group of young adults who are based globally and share a common vision and mission.

- Founded in 2004 with 34 children, “Gurukulam” School currently has 232 children in classes LKG through XII Grade.

- All students are from an economically underprivileged background with parents earning less than Rs. 200 ($4 USD) per day.

- ✓ Free education in the English medium.
- ✓ Free lunch and breakfast.
- ✓ Free textbooks and notebooks.
- ✓ Free uniforms.
- ✓ Free training in Karate, Yoga, Sailing and Surfing.
- ✓ Free medical & dental check-ups.
- ✓ “How to Live” moral value classes.

- Trust Children has pledged to support each Gurukulam child until he/she completes a professional / vocational course.
- Trust Children is starting “Gurukulam Vocational Training Centre” this year to further its mission pledge.
